Friends of The Vancouver Symphony Orchestra

“Spring Forward with Our Symphony”

On Friday, April 8, 2011, the Friends of the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra will host its annual fundraiser luncheon at the Hilton Vancouver, from 1130am – 130pm. Master of Ceremonies will be Rod Hill, meteorologist from KGW, in Portland. Special guest will be The VSO's own Maestro Salvador Brotons. There will be auction items, special piano music and a complimentary memento. Either chicken and vegetarian entrees are available. The cost per seat is $40, while a table of ten can be reserved for $375. Please email Michael Fox-Lambert above or call 360 735-7278 for reservations.

Friends of The Vancouver Symphony Orchestra is a social and fundraising arm of the symphony. Its continuing efforts at community and education outreach is of primary importance. Last January, the Friends presented the VSO with a check for $10,000.00, amassed through the hard work and generosity of its members and the general public, to ensure the production of the most recent Annual Young Artists Competition and the In-School concerts that take place in May.

Friends of the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra operates under the umbrella of The Vancouver Symphony Orchestra, an IRS registered 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation. Any construed membership dues or other specific cash donations to the Friends should be considered fully tax deductible under the IRS provision.
