THE VANCOUVER SYMPHONY ANNOUNCES THE GRAND OPENING CELEBRATION OF ITS 34TH SEASON
Music and Spirits highlight September 29 Evening

(Vancouver, WA) It's not only the most glittering event of the symphony season, but the most important when it comes to fund-raising for The Vancouver Symphony Orchestra. The evening kicks off at 6 pm on Saturday, September 29 at Royal Oaks Country Club at 8917 N.E. Fourth Plain Blvd. in Vancouver, WA.

In what is always a highlight of every symphony season, this shimmering celebration features heavy hors d'oeuvres, spirits and wine, as well as live and silent auctions. The evening also spotlights VSO musicians playing American, Russian, French and Spanish music. All proceeds from the annual fund-raiser benefit The Vancouver Symphony Orchestra, now in its 34th season providing music to Southwest Washington.

In addition to individual reservations for $75 per person, tables of eight are also available for $600. Tickets can be purchased on line at www.vancouversymphony.org or by calling (360) 735-7278.

About The VSO

Led by Music Director and Conductor Salvador Brotons, now in his 22nd season, The VSO has become a cornerstone of Southwest Washington's arts community, providing world-renowned classical music, promoting young musicians, and opening doors to classical music for young audiences through events such as the annual In-School concerts, Young Artists Competition and various family-styled special events and performances. With a full-sized professional orchestra of over 70 core members, many of whom are teachers in our school districts, the orchestra provides our region with a multi-concert classical season every year. The VSO performs at Skyview Concert Hall, 1300 NW 139th Street, Vancouver. Season support for The VSO is provided by The Firstenburg Fasmily and All Classical 89.9.
