NADJA SALERNO-SONNENBERG AND THE OREGON
SYMPHONY TO PERFORM VIVALDI'S FOUR SEASONS IN VANCOUVER

Concert to be presented in special partnership between the Oregon Symphony and the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra.

(PORTLAND, Ore.) – Oregon Symphony President Scott Showalter and Vancouver Symphony Orchestra Executive Director Igor Shakhman today announced that the Oregon Symphony and world-renowned violinist Nadja Salerno-Sonnenberg will perform at the Skyview Concert Hall in Vancouver, Washington on January 8, 2017.

Known the world over for her fiery and emotional performances, Ms. Salerno-Sonnenberg will both play and conduct the orchestra in one of the world's most popular pieces of classical music—Vivaldi's Four Seasons. Also on the concert's program is Bizet's Carmen Suite, arranged by Russian composer Rodion Shchedrin.
